

All Churches Will Submit to the Papacy

Bible prophecy reveals that all churches will unite with the Papacy in forming a New World Order with the support of the United States . This imminent union between church and state will lead to the worldwide persecution of Christ's true followers.

We cannot overlook the papacy's claim that Christ's true church subsists exclusively in the Roman Catholic Church, to the exclusion of all others. This leaves one option for other churches; to either submit to the papacy, or bear the stigma of not being recognized by the largest church in the world.

While Pope Benedict remains committed to ecumenical dialogue because, according to Bible prophecy, she desires to regain the power she has had in past centuries by uniting church and state; establishing the right in the to control religious observances through secular laws.

The Bible has warned us of this impending danger; Protestantism will end up uniting with Catholicism. But it will not be because Catholicism has changed. The papacy claims infallibility which means she never errs, and thus, never changes. It will be the Protestants who will compromise by adopting Rome's agenda.

"This union will lead to the intolerance and persecution of all dissidents."
