

An Invitation to View an Amazing Video on Next & Last Pope

Revelation 17, one of the last unfulfilled prophecies of the Bible, reveals what is about to happen in the very close future! The video in the following link is a must see of details that no conjecture can come up with: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QUH4fu4NheQ> or <http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=3069268071095400057&hl=en>

"It is a must see before it happens," says Dahlia Doss of World's Last Chance Team. The video briefly delineates how Revelation 17's 7 kings are the last seven popes, including the current pope Benedict XVI, since 1929, and that the 8th pope will be a demon impersonating one of the previous seven. "Who else of these seven popes," questions Doss, "Other than 'John Paul II the Great' the only pope since the first millennium to be acclaimed as 'the Great'; the most loved; most traveled pope ever; whose death instigated the largest funeral in the history of the world - would be a most influential tool for Satan to use to implement his own agenda?"

What you view in this amazing video is but a brief snap shop of what you can understand by reading the article that explains all of this: http://www.worldslastchance/next_and_last_pope.php. This article is a beautiful depiction of how to read and interpret Bible prophecy by letting the Bible explain itself.

It is a challenge, open for all, to find another explanation, if possible, that so clearly explains Bible prophecy as does this article.

Stop asking yourself, what is this talking about, what is this all about, and watch the video: <http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QUH4fu4NheQ> or <http://video.google.com/videoplay?docid=3069268071095400057&hl=en>
